Milestones

70 years 200 shows

Anniversaries give us moments to reflect upon what has taken place and moments to project what is to come. The reflection is easy. History has been recorded and revisiting pictures and records flash us back to past experiences. Hopefully some of the photos available this weekend will take you back down memory lane.

Projecting into the future is far more challenging. Our sport is at a cross roads. It will be our challenge to ensure that 70 years from now dog shows still exist.

This small club has a rich history of presenting quality dogs shows with distinguished international judging panels.

Proceeds from these shows have been utilized to support: Outreach for Hunger, Cancer Research, The Pet Therapy Team, University of Guelph Vet. Tech. Bursaries, Canine Police, Seeing Eye Dogs, Hearing Ear Dogs, Minor Hockey and Baseball Leagues.

We are honoured to have Mr. Lyle Drewery as a 60 year Life Member. Although he is currently living in "The Village" in Ridgetown, ON his interest in the club has never diminished.

In such a small membership club it is noteworthy that 8 members so far have reached the Life Time Membership level with 30 years of involvement:

Doreen Drewery
Lyle Drewery
Olive (Mills) Irwin
Lou Durocher
John Lusk
Jim Clark
Marg. Clark
Ed Wild

We are pleased to have Ann Bowden joining the group this year with 30 years of dedicated activity.

The membership wishes you a fun filled and successful weekend.
