Indignities - Rule 20.7 - It shall be the duty and obligation of the trial-giving club to see that a judge, club official, ring steward, volunteer or competitor at an obedience or rally trial held under these regulations is not subject to indignities of any kind. The Trial Chair shall promptly report to the CKC any infringement of this regulation, and the CKC shall have the authority to take such action as it deems fit on receipt of a report indicating that this has occurred.

No entry fee will be refunded if these trials cannot open or be completed by reason of riot, civil disturbance, fire, act of God, public emergency, act of a public enemy, strike, or any other cause beyond the control of the club.

Change of Entry: A dog may be moved from one official class to another within the same trial. A dog that has fulfilled the requirements for a title in accordance with the CKC Obedience Trial Rules, may be moved to the next level of competition. The transfer must be submitted to the Trial Secretary on the appropriate form by the owner or handler AT LEAST THIRTY MINUTES PRIOR TO THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE TRIAL.

Eligibility to enter specific obedience and rally classes is detailed in the Obedience Trial & Rally Obedience Trial Rules & Regulations. Any dog taking a win resulting from such an entry will result in the win(s) being cancelled and persons making such changes will be subject to disciplinary action

The Trials Committee will use due care and diligence for the welfare of dogs and exhibitors, but will not be responsible for, or assume any liability in the event of accident, loss or other misfortune to either dogs, exhibitors or patrons. The welfare of an exhibitor's child is to be the responsibility of the exhibitor.
