JOY HODGKINSON—Specialty & Jr. Handling

My childhood canine companions were a Wirehair Fox Terrier and a Labrador, chosen as family members by my parents. The beginning of my adult fascination with purebred dogs came through my husband John, and his English Springer Spaniel, Candy Spots.

But it was the English Cocker that captured our hearts and led us into a life of showing and breeding dogs. Initially starting in part-colours, we soon included solids, achieving many successes with both at All Breed Shows and Specialties. I have also shown Irish Wolfhounds, Silky Terriers, Miniatures Dachshunds, and owned and shown Golden Retrievers.

Always an enthusiastic club supporter, I have worked on many club executives and show committees, serving in different positions including Show Secretary, Chief Ring Steward, Show Chair and Show Superintendent. A life member of the Canadian Kennel Club, I am a founding member of the English Cocker Spaniel Club of Canada.

My commitment to the future of purebred dogs developed an interest in judging, which I undertook in 1998. Since then I have had the honour to judge at All Breed Shows and Specialties in Canada and abroad.

In addition to English Cocker Spaniels, I have bred Crabbet Arabian horses for many years, was a founding member of the Springfield Hunt, and rode to hounds regularly both in Canada and Australia. Among other responsibilities, I raised Foxhound puppies, both English and American, as a puppy walker.

In my professional life I am a Registered Music Teacher, Auditor, Church Musician, Choir Director and author of the Piano Joy Lesson Books series.

Barbara Turpin - Sweepstakes

Barbara is a third generation dog breeder. Under the kennel name "Of Course", her family's Whippets are known for being true dual purpose dogs. They have excelled in both racing and showing for more than 50 years. Of Course Whippets are noted in the UK book, "Whippet's Today" and the US book, "The Complete Whippet".

Mrs. Turpin has had Rhodesian Ridgebacks since 1995 and still holds fast to the family legacy of breeding dogs that are well able to perform the function for which they were bred. She was a panelist at the 2004 World Congress on the subject of Breed Specific Legislation, started the Rhodesian Ridgeback Club of Canada, has written numerous breed-related articles, is a past rescue coordinator and is a "Dogs in Canada" photography contest winner. She is also a novice judge, handling coach, doggy doula and self-taught canine herbalist. She has recently been invited to speak at the 2016 World Congress in Denmark.

Of Course Rhodesian Ridgebacks are known internationally as dynamic movers, dedicated performance dogs, excellent producers, and consistent winners in local shows as well as breed specialties. Of Course get is seen world wide succeeding in the show ring, on the coursing field, in obedience competitions, working as therapy dogs, doing scent work and even in Iron Dog competitions. Refusing fads, Ms. Turpin's dogs are typically true wheaten, standard size and nearly always naughty.

Dedicated to the long-term preservation of the Rhodesian Ridgeback breed, Ms. Turpin's goal at the 2016 World Congress is to prompt discussions on where the breed is going and what needs to be addressed for the long-term good of the breed.
