NATIONAL SWEEPSTAKES & JR. HANDLING JUDGE

Janine Starink

92 – 66th Street, Tsawwassen, BC V4L 2E5

Janine has loved dogs since the very beginning. When she was one year old her family purchased the very first Giant Schnauzer puppy ever born in Canada! She had no idea then what influence that dog would have on the rest of her life. When Janine and her husband Dean moved into their very first home, they purchased a Giant Schnauzer from a world renowned kennel in California called Skansen. Janine had asked for an obedience dog, but had also asked for a pretty one as she had never shown a dog in her life and that was really not the intention of this first dog. Sylvia sent them a beautiful young male who turned out to be quite a handful but also quite the show dog. Sylvia made Janine promise that she would show the dog at least to it's championship before moving into the obedience world. That first puppy went on to win seven Best-In-Shows with a novice owner handler holding his leash! Janine was hooked and for the last 25 years (and hopefully for the next 25 as well) she has been involved with showing dogs and breeding top Giant Schnauzer's under her own prefix of Aerdenhout! Janine has owner-handled a Giant Schnauzer in to the top 10 all-breed in Canada seven times! With the most recent one being her female Giant named Abbey who placed #1 All-Breed!

Throughout the past 25 years Janine has handled many other breeds and often contemplated becoming a professional handler but dismissed that idea to become a top breeder owner-handler instead. In that era of uncertainty she's handled numerous breeds including Soft Coated Wheaten's, German Shorthair Pointer's, Briards, and of course Pugs. One of the Pugs Janine showed was a multi-group placer and she has loved the breed ever since.
