Gwen Roswell

I started in the world of dog training and showing as a teenager with a Norwegian Elkhound who definitely was not going to be trained as an obedience dog but was a beautiful, loving companion. Cindy taught me that the dog world was where I wanted to be and it took many years to have another dog, since then I have been owned by Doberman Pinschers and Shetland Sheepdogs. My Shelties have earned their Utility titles in Canada and the U.S.A. as well as ASCA and UKC Obedience and Rally titles. I currently have 2 Shelties that I am training for Obedience and Rally as well as agility for fun. I am an Obedience and Rally Judge and am looking forward to many years of training and judging beautiful dogs.

I can't think of a time in my life when dogs didn't play a huge role. We always had dogs growing up and, as a youngster in New Westminster, BC during the 60's, I started obedience training my own first Lab/Samoyed cross. Tass was a real handful but had a huge heart and she taught me a lot about the value of patience and consistency in working with this amazing species. Several dogs later and after having my beautiful daughters I moved to Nanaimo and landed on Shelties. My first, OTCh. Marpoint's Charlotte Harlot was also a clown and she sealed my love of the Obedience and Rally Obedience sports and sparked my interest in judging. Eventually, I decided to downsize when I was smitten by the intelligence and wonderful attitude of the Papillon. Two of my current pack have completed their UD titles, are active in the Rally and Agility rings and are willing and able to learn almost and sport short of Draft! I am constantly inspired by the courage and love demonstrated by Obedience competitors (especially the Novice A class), for their wonderful dogs.
